

STAFFORDSHIRE POLICE, FIRE AND CRIME PANEL – 10 February 2020

WORK PROGRAMME PLANNING 2020-2021

Report of the Secretary

Recommendation

That the Panel note the dates of future meetings and considers the contents of its Work Programme for 2020 -2021.

Background

By Regulation this Panel is required to meet on a minimum of 4 occasions each year with the facility to convene additional meetings as and when required.

There are a number of reports/matters which the Panel is required to consider:

Police and Crime Matters: the proposed Policing and Crime Precept each year, the Police and Crime Plan, The Commissioners Annual Report on the delivery of the Plan, Confirmation Hearings for a number of key posts and Reports on the Handling of Complaints

Fire and Rescue Service Matters: the proposed Fire and Rescue Service Precept each year, the draft Fire and Rescue Plan/Corporate Safety Plan (incorporating the Integrated Risk Management Plan), the Annual Statement of Assurance and Confirmation Hearings for key posts in the Service.

This is the last scheduled meeting of the Panel before the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner elections on Thursday 7 May 2020. The draft Work Programme is therefore limited to listing those known issues for which statutory requirements/timings apply.

The next scheduled meeting of the Panel is on 13 July 2020 at which time the Panel are expected to be in a position to consider a more detailed Work Programme and the timetabling of reports on statutory plans etc.
