2. Staff Facilitation Fee Scope: Staff time used to make a customer request for service possible, including but not restricted to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • supervising documents outside the research room during professional photography, transporting documents to an external office for microfilming, conservation or other purpose • certifying the content of archives held within the service for use in religious legal or other proceedings • preparing or conserving documents in order that a customer order can be carried out • transcribing or translating documents in private hands Basis: The fee will always be equal to the Research Fee.	£30.00 per hour	£32 (£26.67 +£5.33 VAT) Minimum charge £16.00 (£13.34 + £2.66 VAT)		As part of fulfilling customer orders or requests, from time to time archive service staff may need to carry out ancillary or additional tasks in order to make the chargeable request possible. Examples would include, conserving or stabilising documents prior to photography, supervising documents in areas outside the search room in order that professional photography may be done, accompanying documents outside the service's premises for third party purposes. The provision of a certified copy of a register entry or an electoral register entry may be requested from the Archive Service for use by the customer in religious or legal proceedings. Staff's professional skills such as palaeography are sometimes requested by customers for single documents in private hands. In all these cases the archive service has routinely made a charge based on the hourly rate for research. This fee provides a defined fee for all work for the public not covered elsewhere in this schedule It is proposed to increase this fee from April 2020 so that it remains in step with the Research Fee.
