

and ancient Inclosure belonging to him the said James Lockhart on the south and the allotment number 11 allotment number 215 heron after allotted to the said Thomas Lockhart and his wife for Bidart and the said James Thomas Lockhart on the north from whence the said road leads out of the said Turnpike Road to an ancient lane called and Dist Road number 94 called Apesford Road leading out of the said Turnpike Road to an ancient lane called the allotment number 96 heron after allotted to the said John Bottom the allotment number 97 heron after allotted to the said belonging to him the said Francis Leigh the allotment number 98 heron after allotted to the said Francis Leigh an ancient on the south and the allotment number 99 heron after allotted to the said Samuel Hope ancient Inclosure belonging to the said after allotted to the said Samuel Hope the allotment number 99 heron after allotted to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham on the north from whence the said road leads Francis Leigh called Money Post and the allotment number 99 heron after allotted to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham on the north from whence the said road leads to the east end of the said Lane called Hig Lane and so forwards to the Village of Chedleton aforesaid. One other publick Horse Carriage and road) 93 called Nevodgs Road leading out of the Apesford Road last described towards Ashenhurst in the parish of Lich as aforesaid and lying between the allotment number 88 heron after allotted to the said Samuel Hope ancient Inclosures severally belonging to the said Samuel Hope and Elizabeth Higginbotham on the east and the allotment number 99 heron after allotted to the said Lawrence Stanley and the allotment number 99 heron after allotted to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham on the west from whence the said road enters into and along an ancient Lane leading to Ashenhurst aforesaid. One other publick Horse Carriage and Dist Road number 182 called Ashenhurst Road leading out of the before mentioned Turnpike Road between an ancient Inclosure belonging to the said Lawrence Stanley called Yallow Meadows on the south east and the allotment number 181 heron after allotted to the said Thomas Mills on the north west from whence the said road leads into and along an ancient Lane called Pimolia Lane to the allotment number 180 heron after allotted to the said James Finney on the east side of that allotment to the south corner thereof where the said Lane branches out into two roads one Branch leading out of the said Lane into and over the allotment number 180 between ancient Inclosures to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham called the Fair Hayco from whence the road enters into and over the allotment number 180 between ancient Inclosures to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham called the Fair Hayco from whence the road enters into and over the allotment number 180 between ancient Inclosures to the said Elizabeth Higginbotham called the Fair Hayco from whence the